

and the present

Central North Carolina Council

2006 Camp Barnhardt Outdoor Games

November 17 - 19, 2006

$12.00 Registration fee for Scouts (limited to first 500 Scouts)

$3.00 Saturday Lunch (Optional - Includes hamburger, chips & drink)

$5.00 fee for leaders (Cracker Barrel & Patch)

(Unit leaders that host a game or activity will not be charged a fee)

$1.00 per person for family camping

-- Action Centers --

Shooting Sports: Archery, B. B.'s, Rifle, Shotgun, Muzzle Loading, Action Archery Course

Water Sports: Canoeing, Kayaking, Fishing (optional to bring your own gear), Fly Fishing

Outdoor Skills: Backpacking, Camping, Orienteering, Cooking, Climbing, Wilderness Survival, Bow, Drill Fire Starting Technique, Leave No Trace

Field Sports: Sports-Kickball, Frisbee, Volleyball, Basketball, Golf & activities hosted by unit leaders

Other Activities: Game Calling, Hunter Safety, Dog Training & Care, ATV Safety, Rappelling, Zipline,

Boy Scout/Venture Activities Only: Rifle, Shotgun, Tower, C.O.P.E., Muzzle Loading, Action Archery Course

All action areas will provide hands-on activities for Scouts with expert instruction from Bass Pro Shops Outdoor World personnel. Have you always wanted to shoot a muzzle loader, paddle a kayak, learn to flycast, or cook outdoors? How efficient are you at packing a backpack or reading a compass? Test your golf skills or learn to call a turkey. All this and more coming to Camp John J. Barnhardt which is located on the 1,000 acre William C. Cannon Scout Reservation off Hwy. 740 on Badin Lake.

Schedule

Friday	2:00 - 8:00pm 8:00pm	Check In Leaders' Meeting (All leaders are required to attend to get rotation schedule, armbands and patches)
Saturday	8:00am 8:30am 12:00 - 1:00pm 1:00 - 4:30pm 5:00pm 7:30pm	Opening Ceremony - Montgomery Circle Action Areas Open Lunch Action Areas reopen Closing Ceremony Campfire
Sunday	8:00 - 8:30am 10:30am	Vespers Check Out

As a service to parents of our Scouts, the Central N. C. Council will have a Scout shop with all your uniform and handbook needs at this event.